SHARING OUR BLESSINGS

The offerings for this past weekend, are not available at this time. They will appear in a future bulletin.

PRESERVES AND BREAD SALE

Our annual sale of homemade preserves and breads has now begun, and will continue for the next few weeks. Small jars/ breads are $3.50 each or 2 for $6.00 and large jars are $6.00 each or 2 for $11.00. ALL proceeds benefit St. Augustine Parish, so stock up now!

Members of Saints Francis & Therese Catholic Worker will be here on the weekend of August 25 and 26, 2018 with our homemade baked goods. The sale of our wholesome bread and muffins, made with organic ingredients, is the main source of income which supports our ministries. We shelter homeless men and women, and we work for justice and peace. There is no set price for the bread as we prefer to depend on your generosity to carry on the works of mercy.

If you need anything put into the bulletin, please submit it to the office at least 2 weeks before you need it to be in the bulletin.

MASS INTENTIONS/SANCTUARY CANDLE

The 2018 and 2019 Mass Intentions Books are available, and there are plenty of open Masses, and open weeks for the Sanctuary Candle. Mass Intentions and the Sanctuary Candle stipends are still only $10.00 each.

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS:

Ketchup, Mustard, Barbecue Sauce, Pudding

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Registration for Religious Education 2018-19 is ongoing. Please contact Donna Wilson to register by email for returning families. New families please contact Donna Wilson to meet in person to register for classes. The fees remain $75 for one child, $90 for two children, and $115 for three or more children. Please remember our catechist's families receive a waiver of all fees. Our classes will start on Sunday, September 9th. A full calendar is available.

Everyday Stewardship

What else is there to give when one has already given away their body and their life? What more can one say or do to demonstrate love for another when all they have has been given to another? This total giving of self to loved ones cannot be trumped by flowery words or material gifts that are fleeting. This is the ultimate in love. This is the love Jesus had for us on the way to his passion, at the institution of the Holy Eucharist. This is the love he has for us daily in the celebration of the Mass on altars in every church, in every city, in every nation on earth. No one can give more. No one can ask for more. This is the true heart of Christian stewardship.

If you take the time to gaze upon your God in the simplest of forms and begin to reflect on what has actually taken place with bread and wine becoming the presence of the Divine, then you can begin to understand true humility, sacrifice, and love. And when you have the privilege to take that Real Presence into your body at the meal where you are an honored guest, you become one with the One who is the embodiment of stewardship. Then, you must ask the question of yourself, "How can I even begin to reflect the love that I have encountered at this feast?" The answer is you can begin with the simple actions of the day: where will you go, whom will you meet, and in what work will you partake? Jesus Christ has shown that the greatest gift ever given can be disguised in this world in a piece of bread.

By joining your body to his, he can now transform human hearts, not by grand acts, but by everyday acts, by everyday people practicing Everyday Stewardship.
