

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 5, 2018

Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave the bread from heaven; My Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." -Jn 6:24-35

The Gospel tells us "This is my beloved Son. Listen to Him." By "listening" we are able to live the Gospel. Gospel living is something so simple, as taking the time to listen to those who need to spill out their hearts when seeking help. Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you enable the members of the Society to become a "listening heart" to the hungry, the homeless, and the struggling poor.

LITURGICAL REFLECTION for the 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 5, 2018

Cremation is sometimes chosen as an option because of sanitary, economic or social considerations. The Church raises no doctrinal objection to this practice, since cremation of the deceased's body does not affect his or her soul, nor does it prevent God, in His omnipotence, from raising up the deceased body to new life. Cremation does not negate neither the Christian doctrine of the soul's immortality nor that of the resurrection of the body. The Church prefers that the body be brought to Church intact; that a Mass of Christian burial be offered for the soul's repose and then, be cremated. The Church continues to insist you practice the burying of the body of the deceased, because this shows a greater esteem towards the deceased allowing the deceased to Rest In Peace (RIP) along with all the other faithful departed in the Church cemetery. Cremated remains may not be divided, nor are they to be placed in lockets or turned into jewelry!
