Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 19, 2018

Jesus said to the crowds:
"I am the living bread that
came down from heaven;
whoever eats this bread will live
forever; and the bread that I will give is My flesh for the life
of the world."

Liturgical Reflection for the 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 19, 2018

With the legitimate motives present for the choice of cremation, the ashes of the Faithful MUST be laid to rest in a cemetery. From the earliest times, Christians have desired that the faithful departed become the objects of the Christian community's prayers and remembrance. Their tombs have become places of prayer, remembrance and reflection. The faithful departed remain part of the Church, united with those who are pilgrims on earth, the dead who are being purified, and the blessed in heaven, all together forming one Church.
