Third Sunday of Easter, May 5, 2019

Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you just caught." So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask Him, "Who are You?" Because they realized it was the Lord.
-Jn 21:1-19

Families and the Gospel – The Third Sunday of Easter, May 5 (John 21:1-19) – When Peter announced, “I am going fishing” he was doing something that he had done every day since childhood. THREE WAYS TO FIND (AND BRING) EASTER HOPE ALL YEAR LONG

- 1. See the world with “Easter eyes.” Be on the lookout for signs of hope – in nature, in other people, in God – wherever you are. And tell others what you see.
- 2. Be present at the foot of the cross. Don’t hesitate to ask for help in your own times of trouble. And be there with others when they suffer sorrow or doubt.
- 3. Choose life over death, always. In everything you do, be a witness to hope. Live as though you know death doesn’t get the last word...because it doesn’t.
