

Seventh Sunday of Easter, June 2, 2019

Lifting up His eyes to Heaven, Jesus prayed, saying: “Holy Father, I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in Me through their word, so that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in Me and I in You, that they also may be in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me.”
— Jn 17:20-26

THE GIFT OF TIME

by Judith Dunlap

I learned the phrase, tempus fugit, in high school Latin class, but never really understood its meaning until I reached middle age. Now, I know how quickly “time flies.” Toddlers became teenagers and before you know it, they are graduating from high school!

Over the years I’ve learned that time is a precious commodity, not anything to be squandered on “to do” lists. At its best it is a gift meant to be generously shared with those we love. So now, for my best advice for parents is to find time to play together as a family. I remember the busyness of family life. It takes so much time to cook and clean, shop and do laundry, take care of the yard, get homework done, attend Little League games, Scouts, parent meetings, etc... There are only 24 hours in a day; and eight to ten of them are spent at work or school. Then there’s sleep (what few hours that may be.) It is so easy to let the days slip by with no time to play. Scientists tell us that play is an essential part of healthy life, even for adults.

Playing together as a family teaches us how to interact and develop relationships of trust and mutuality. We can learn to communicate in comfortable, informal settings. Play can even help us let go of aggressive tendencies. And...it can help to relieve stress!

This summer, start by reclaiming Sunday as family day. After Church, spend a few hours playing together. Fly a kite, toss a Frisbee or just sit at home and play board games. At first, it may seem to be the only day to get the laundry or shopping done, but this summer, re-think your weekly schedule. Besides honoring our Lord, there is another good reason for keeping Holy the Sabbath: Your Family’s well-being may depend on it...
