

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 14, 2019

A Samaritan traveler came upon him and was moved with compassion at the sight. He poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. He then lifted him up on his animal, and took him to an inn and cared for him. The innkeeper treated him with kindness and mercy. — Lk 10:25-37

One Land, Many People

Bless our beautiful land, O Lord, with its wonderful variety of people, of races, cultures and languages. May we be a nation of laughter and joy, of justice and reconciliation, of peace and unity, of compassion, caring and sharing. We pray this prayer for true patriotism, in the powerful name of Jesus, our Lord. Amen...

Hello God, I called tonight; to talk a little while I need a friend who'll listen to my anxiety and trial.

You see, I can't quite make it through a day just on my own...I need your love to guide me, so I'll never feel alone.

I want to ask you please to keep my family safe and sound. Come and fill their lives with confidence for whatever fate they're bound.

Give me faith, dear God, to face each hour throughout the day, and not to worry over things I can't change in any way.

I thank you God, for being home and listening to my call, for giving me such good advice when I stumble and fall.

You number, God, is the only one that answers every time. I never get a busy signal, never had to pay a dime.

So, Thank You God, for listening to my troubles and my sorrow. Good night God, I Love You too, and I'll call again tomorrow!!
