

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 4, 2019

God said to the rich man, "You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong? Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God."
- Lk 12:13-21

A MATTER OF PERSPECTIVE

To make a large object appear smaller, just look at it through the wrong end of a pair of binoculars! This is a good illustration of how we, as Christians, should deal with our problems. Denying that there is a problem doesn't help. Christians have difficulties just like everyone else. But we do have a resource – our faith in our Lord Jesus Christ – that helps us deal with our problems constructively so that we aren't totally wiped out by them. The secret is to view our problems in light of God's infinite grace and power. Our problems are manageable when we use these resources that are part of the birthright of every Christian.
