Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 18, 2019

Jesus said to His disciples: "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing! There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is My anguish until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No I tell you, but rather division."
-Lk 12:49-53

Stewardship Reflection for the Twentieth Sunday of Ordinary Time, August 18, 2019

Trying to live as a Christian in today's society can be very challenging at times. Although stewardship is challenging, there is a peace that comes with the decision we make for Christ and living His will when we share our time, talent and treasure.

Making God our first priority frees us of our ties to material possessions and the judgment that divides the Body of Christ, the Church, and all Her members. Christian stewards look to today's Second Reading for inspiration by "keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus." (Hebrews 12:2)
