

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, November 17, 2019

While some people were speaking about how the temple was adorned with costly stones and votive offerings, Jesus said, “All that you see here – the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down.” – Lk 21:5-19

GRATITUDE

Gratitude is a theme running through secular as well as spiritual life.

The desire to celebrate a fruitful harvest, for instance, is ancient and universal. People in many lands set aside a special day to express appreciation for the blessings received since the last Thanksgiving.

There are sumptuous meals, festive parades, religious observances and assisting in soup kitchens serving the poor.

In the life of the spirit, gratitude is a theme of utmost importance every day of the year. The theme is common in Scripture. In fact, the word for the central rite of Christian worship, Eucharist, means thanksgiving.

Whether in our day-to-day dealing with others or in our relationship with God, a spirit of gratitude leads to a life of greater happiness.
