

Seventh Sunday of Easter, May 24, 2020

Jesus raised His eyes to Heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come. Give glory to Your Son, so that Your Son may glorify You, just as You gave Him authority over all people, so that Your Son may give eternal life to all You gave Him. And now, I will no longer be in the world, but they are in the world, while I Am coming to You.”
-Jn 17:1-11a

“The faithful are denied of the Eucharist. The priest is denied of his people. For the priest who loves his community, celebrating Mass alone is not a privilege but a deep hidden wound that becomes a source of communion with the community that he loves.” - Fr. Hayden

Reflection on the Gospel – The night before He died, Jesus prayed for us and for all those who were chosen by God. Rather than make us smug, this knowledge should humble us and cause us to emulate Him Who came to serve rather than be served. We live in the world but are not of the world. It is only a temporary home for us. A bright future waits where love reigns and glory is resplendent. For Jesus, in the Gospel of John, the crucifixion is the lifting up, the exaltation of the Son of God. With eyes of faith, let us see anew and reorient our lives.

A Prayer for Memorial Day

Remember O Lord, Thy servants, who have gone before us with the sign of faith and rest in the sleep of peace.

To these, O Lord, and to all who sleep in Christ, grant, we pray, a place of refreshment, of light, and of peace.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Heavenly Father, on this Memorial Day, we pray for those who courageously laid down their lives for the cause of freedom.

May the examples of their sacrifice inspire in us the selfless love of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Bless the families of our fallen troops, and fill their homes and their lives with Your strength and peace.

In union with people of goodwill of every nation, embolden us to answer the call to work for peace and justice, and thus, seek an end to violence and conflict around the globe.

Grant wisdom to our leaders, civil and military, that they may most effectively direct our efforts, at home and abroad.

Teach us all to walk humbly with Thee, so that we may be worthy to conquer, and having conquered, may build a peace with justice, under the Fatherhood of God.

We ask this through Christ our Lord...Amen.
