

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 19, 2020

“They will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the Kingdom of their Father. Whoever has ears ought to hear.”
-Mt 13:24-43

COVID MASS CHANGE

As regards to Mass attendance, the numbers continue to be stable, however, they remain low and since the Faithful are still not under the obligation to assist at Holy Mass, it seems reasonable to combine the 7 AM & 9 AM Sunday Masses and split the difference by having an 8 AM Mass. Of course, there will be inconveniences and everybody has their favorite times for their particular reasons (including your pastor).

The fall-out from the pandemic has negatively impacted us in so many ways. Let's not allow this to be a negative experience. Hope and pray, dear people, that once the strife is o'er we might return to our regular schedule.

This new 8 AM Sunday Mass will take effect on the 2nd of August, and will remain in effect thru the pandemic's end.

MISSALETTES ARE AVAILABLE – When entering Church, remember to take a Missalette to use during Mass (they are located along the sides of the Church), then take it home with you. This will be your copy to bring back to Mass each week. When the date has expired, simply bring your book back to Church, put it in the boxes (located in the entrances of Church) so they can be disposed of properly. The new books will be available the week of August 15/16.

We will use this procedure until the danger of the pandemic has passed...

Also, if you know someone who can't make it to Mass, please take them a Missalette, so they will be able to follow along with the Mass on TV. Thanks!...

SAINT VINCENT BENEDICTINE COMMUNITY ELECTS NEW ARCHABBOT

Father Martin de Porres, O.S.B., a monk of St. Vincent Archabbey for 40 years and who served as the 14th president of St. Vincent College from 1995 – 2000, has been elected as the 12th Archabbot of St. Vincent Archabbey.

With his election, Archabbot Martin de Porres also becomes chancellor of St. Vincent College and of St. Vincent Seminary, Latrobe.

The Archabbot of St. Vincent is the spiritual head and Father of St. Vincent Archabbey, the first Benedictine Monastery in America.

The Saint Vincent monastic community is comprised of more than 150 monks who are priests or brothers. They serve at the Benedictine Priory in Savannah, Georgia; the Wimmer Priory in Taipei, Taiwan; and S'ò Bento Priory in Vinhedo, Brazil.

St. Vincent Benedictines also operate a Benedictine Military School in Savannah, Georgia, and the Roman Catholic campus ministry program at Pennsylvania State University. They also serve in parishes in Savannah; Virginia Beach, Virginia; Baltimore, Maryland; and the dioceses of Greensburg, Altoona-Johnstown, Pittsburgh and Erie.

An Archabbot is an Ordinary of a self-governing monastery. His role to the monks is equivalent to that between a Bishop and his people.

The Archabbot is a prelate in the Roman Catholic Church and is entitled to wear a ring, pectoral cross and mitre, and is entitled to carry the crozier (or pastoral staff).

Before his election to Archabbot, Fr. Martin de Porres had been serving as the administrator of the MACH1 – Monaca, Aliquippa, Center and Hopewell – Parish grouping in the Diocese of Pittsburgh.

In July of 2013, he was appointed pastor of St. Frances Cabrini Parish, Center Township, by Bishop David A. Zubik. In September 2017, he assumed responsibility for St. Titus Parish, Aliquippa and Our Lady of Fatima, Hopewell.

With the diocesan reorganization initiated in October 2018, St. John the Baptist Parish, Monaca, became part of the grouping, and he became the administrator of all four parishes. In addition to his pastoral work in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, the Archabbot was appointed to the Priest Advisory Council and was elected as a religious order representative to the Presbyteral Council. Bishop David Zubik also appointed him to the Board of Directors of Serra Catholic High School.

The Archabbot earned a degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1989 and a master of business administration degree from Bowling Green State University in 1984. A 1984 graduate of St. Vincent Seminary, where he earned a master of divinity degree with the highest honors, he also earned a bachelor of business administration degree from Temple University in 1978 with a major in accounting and a minor in computer science. He has also taken graduate courses in finance, Latin and philosophy courses at St. Vincent College; and undergraduate courses. A 1974 graduate of Barberton H.S., Barberton, Ohio. He attended the Institute for Educational Management sponsored by the Graduate School of Education at Harvard University in 1992.

He made his simple profession of vows as a monk of St. Vincent Archabbey on July 10, 1980, and solemn profession of vows on July 11, 1983. He was ordained a deacon on August 11, 1984, by the late Bishop Norbert Gaughn, and was ordained a Priest on May 25, 1985, by the late Bishop William G. Connare of Greensburg.

An associate professor of business administration at St. Vincent College, the Archabbot taught accounting, statistics, business law, school law, legal research and business ethics from 1989-2001. He is also a certified public accountant.
