COVID – 19

Awareness and care for ourselves and others has been in the forefront of messages like # we're all in this together, and has been repeated over and over. All the directives for the celebration of Mass and the reception of the Sacraments during this time of the Coronavirus pandemic remain in effect.

Please Remember:

Wear a mask - for your protection and others.

Social distance - 6 feet away from your neighbor in the pews, standing in line for Holy Communion and at the Communion Rail.

Take your conversations outside after Mass has ended - no gathering inside the Church.

If you are sick, stay home – You are dispensed from assisting at Mass until further notice.

Without our best, conscientious effort - we could face the possibility of closing Churches again!

BE SMART, STAY HEALTHY, # we're all in this together!

PARISH PRAYER LIST – We entrust to the care of Christ the Divine Physician, those members of our Parish Family in need of Healing in Body, Mind, or Spirit especially Dick Cence, Greta Stevens, Jack Farrell, Ed Taylor, Sr., Heather Cosner, Stephen Doughty Family, Dick Anna, Derek Miller, Gerard Macaluso, Bernie Ropchock, Leona Hoover, Angel Sherwood, Kara Vozniak, and Rose Moxley. May they embrace their trials in union with the Crucified Christ for the salvation of souls, and the remission of sins.

The National Collection for The Catholic University of America will be collected next weekend, September 12/13. Catholic University's motto – God Is My Light – is a constant reminder of our origin and mission. For 133 years, it has served as a guide as the University educates students who go on to serve the nation and transform the world. This collection not only supports students, but also helps the University serve dioceses and parishes through innovative research initiatives and training programs, such as an online Child Protection Certificate Program, a Master's program in Ecclesial Administration and Management for clergy, and a credentialing program that prepares recent graduates to serve as campus ministers. An envelope is provided for you in your packet. Thank you for your generosity.
