

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time, February 7, 2021

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to Jesus all who were ill or possessed by the demons. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and He drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew Him. – Mk 1:29-39

Blessing of throats will be offered to the congregation this year as a safer alternative to individual blessings (the challenge is the sanitizing of candles after they have touched each person). This year, the blessing will be given to all gathered, with the Priest extending his hands over the congregation while reciting the prayer of blessing. Those gathered will respond, “Amen.”

Throats will be blessed this weekend February 6/7

Thank you, and remember to bring a mask with you!! Thank you.

A PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

“O My God, pour out in abundance Thy spirit of sacrifice upon Thy priests.

It is both their glory and duty to become victims, to be burnt up for souls, to live without ordinary joys, to be often the objects of distrust, injustice and persecution.

The words they say every day at the altar, ‘This is My Body, this is My Blood’, grant them to apply to themselves, ‘I am no longer myself, I am Jesus, Jesus crucified. I am, like the bread and wine, a substance no longer itself but by consecration another.’

O my God, I burn with the desire for the sanctification of Thy priests. I wish all the priestly hands which touch Thee were hands whose touch is gentle and pleasing to Thee, that all the mouths uttering such sublime words at the altar should never descend to speaking trivialities.

Let priests in all their person stay at the level of their lofty functions, let every man find them simple and great, like the Holy Eucharist, accessible to all yet above the rest of men.

O My God, grant them to carry with them from the Mass of today a thirst for the Mass of tomorrow, and grant them, laden themselves with gifts, to share these abundantly with the fellow men. Amen...”
