

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time, February 14, 2021

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged Him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, Jesus stretched out His hand, "I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. – Mk 1:40-45

St. Valentine?

There were two people who gave February 14 the name of Valentine’s Day. The first Valentine apparently performed many marriages that were against the emperor’s wishes in the Third Century. The emperor wanted men to join the army rather than marry. The second Valentine was apparently imprisoned for helping the Christians. He is said to have loved the jailer’s daughter even cured her of blindness. From prison, he wrote her many love notes and would always sign them “From Your Valentine.”

Both Valentine’s are closely associated with love relationships. Strangely enough, it is also said that both were put to death on the same day – February 14.
