I Kneel Before My Crucified

*I kneel before my Crucified
His drops of blood within my soul;
I gaze upon His broken Heart
That I myself have pierced, I know!*

*His tender flesh is torn to shreds
His sacred blood drops slowly down;
The essence of the Cross turns red
His blood soaks into silent ground.*

*O Precious Ground with Precious Blood
Whose sacred steps you firmly held!
Give me the strength that you have shown
I cry for Him whom I have nailed!*

*His Holy Head is crushed with pain
No mercy shown by sharpened thorns;
He gasps for air, blood chokes His Throat
His Body caves, His Heart is torn.*

*O Blessed Tree whose wood you gave
The splinters of His Holy Cross,
Have pierced my mind, my heart and soul
With sorrow, pain and grief filled loss.*

*O Dearest Mother, Chaste and Pure,
With gentle love how You embraced
The lifeless Body of Your Son,
His fragile limbs, His swollen face.*

*The sufferings that You both endured
Eternal truths from Heaven above,
Have turned His Cross to Priceless Gold,
The Treasure of His Shining Love.*
