While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to His disciples, saying, "Take it; This is My Body." Then He took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, and they all drank from it.
"This is My Blood of the Covenant, which is poured out for many," He said to them.
- Mk 14:22-24

Families and the Gospel – April 4, 2021 - Easter Sunday (Jn 20:1-9), That first Easter morning was confusing. Jesus was missing and Mary Magdalene, Peter and John “did not know” what to do. In family life, there are confusing moments when “we don’t know” what to do. Like the apostles, we are Easter people when we believe and trust in each other even when all seems lost. – Reprinted with permission: A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar from the Family Life Office at familylife@dioceseaj.org

Sing now in Gladness, gone, is all sadness. Christ the Lord is risen!

You know as well as I that should you embrace your temporary losses with a true spirit of obedience, with hearts open to increasing our belief, that this will serve for the sanctification of souls and, trusting that we will never, ever again take for granted the Life of Sacramental Grace given us by Christ, through His Bride the Church, we will emerge from all scourges allowed by God’s Permissive Will, like Christ from the tomb!

As you prepare to commemorate Christ’s triumph over sin and death, do not lose hope.
 Please pray along with me a prayer that has become my mantra in these dark days...

I will whatever You Will.
 I will it because You Will it.
 I will it in the way You Will it.
 I will it for as long as You Will it.

May God’s Holy Will be done and may it be done unto us as we hope and pray.

Blessed Easter, and, as always, Benedictions,

Fr. Ananias, O.S.B.

HE IS NOT HERE
FOR HE HAS RISEN
