Tuesday, Wednesday & Thursday, 9 AM – Noon

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – In this Sunday’s Gospel, Jesus tells His disciples to “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile.” St. Vincent de Paul, a great man of action was also a contemplative. His contemplation of God’s love overflowed into practical love for the poor. Please say a special prayer for the poor and forgotten, as you make your donations to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Families and the Gospel – The Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time taken from Mark 6:30-34 – In today’s Gospel, “The apostles gathered around and told Jesus all they had done.” Listening allows the other person to express, understand and appreciate their experiences. Whether it is the excited chatter of a young child or the repetitious stories of an aging grandparent, listening is important. It is not just time well spent; it is sacred time!

St. Vincent de Paul

St. Vincent de Paul, (born on April 24, 1581, Pouy, now Saint-Vincent-de-Paul, France – died September 27, 1660 in Paris; canonized 1737; feast day September 27), French Saint, founder of the Congregation of the Mission (Lazarists, or Vincentians) for preaching missions to the peasantry and for educating and training a pastoral clergy. The Patron Saint of charitable societies, St. Vincent de Paul is primarily recognized for his charity and compassion for the poor, though he is also known for his reform of the clergy and for his early role in opposing Jansenism.

Educated by the Franciscans at Dax, France, he was ordained in 1600 and graduated from the University of Toulouse in 1604. He was allegedly captured at sea by Barbary pirates and sold as a slave but eventually escaped. He spent a year in Rome to continue his studies and then went to Paris, where he remained permanently. He placed himself under the spiritual guidance of the celebrated cardinal Pierre de Bérulle, who entrusted him with the parish of Clichy.

After founding the Congregation of the Mission in 1625, Vincent de Paul established in and around Paris the Confraternities of Charity – associations of laywomen who visited, fed, and nursed the sick poor. The wealth of these women, many of noble family, aided him in establishing the foundling and other hospitals. With St. Louise de Marillac he co-founded the Daughters of Charity (Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul) in 1633. The association was patterned after the Confraternities of Charity and was the first non-cloistered religious institute of women devoted to active charitable works.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, a Catholic charitable organization dedicated to the service of the poor, was founded by Blessed Antoine Frédéric Ozanam in 1833.
