

The Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 31, 2021

One of the scribes asked Jesus, "Which is the first of all the commandments?" Jesus replied, "The first is this: Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength." – Mk 12:28b-34

ALL HALLOWS EVE (Sunday, October 31)

Prayer for Those for Whom We Are Bound to Pray (All Hallows Eve, prayers and devotions. Ancilla Press)

Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord our God, that the souls of all our benefactors, relatives and connections, and all the faithful, may rest in the bosom of Thy saints; and hereafter, in the resurrection from the dead, may please Thee in the land of the living. Through Christ our Lord. Amen...

Prayer for Those who Repose in a Cemetery (All Hallows Eve, prayers and devotions. Ancilla Press)

O God, in Whose tender mercy the souls of the faithful are at rest, of Thy favor give unto the souls of all Thy servants and handmaidens, who here and everywhere sleep in Christ, pardon of sin; that they being absolved from all guilt, may evermore rejoice with Thee. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son. Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, forever and ever. Amen...

BLESSED IS THE LEADER

Blessed is the leader who knows Where to go, Why to go there, and How to get there.

Blessed is the leader who knows no discouragement, presents no alibi.

Blessed is the leader who knows how to lead without being dictatorial.

Blessed is the leader who develops leaders while leading.

Blessed is the leader who leads for the good of the most concerned, and not for personal gratification.

Blessed is the leader with a head in the clouds and feet on the ground.

Blessed is the leader who considers leadership an opportunity to serve. Amen...
