We are of such value to God that He came to live among us...and to guide us home. He will go to any length to seek us, even to being lifted high upon the cross to draw us back to Himself. We can only respond by loving God for His love.

The crew cleaning the church says there are a remarkable number of pills being found in the church (people take pills during Mass?). Anyway, our concern is that children crawling on the floor may find them and place them in their mouths. PLEASE -- if you drop medicine (or anything else for that matter) please find it and discard it so that a child does not become sick.

I believe our parish must be a place of Welcome -- a place of re-birth, healing, mercy, nourishment, renewal, growth, & health; a place where we don't get swamped by our shame, fear, despair, grief, or hopelessness; where we don't just babble, but where we clearly articulate who we are and what our place is in this world.

I believe our parish must be a place of Hospitality for all -- a place of solidarity; a home with space for everyone; a place where all are welcome. Every person who walks in our doors should know that "no matter my history; no matter what causes me shame or guilt – I am welcome here."

The purpose of the church is not to demonize those who are different than we are, who think differently, who might agree on the problem but might have a different solution. Rather, we engage by listening, and understanding, and responding with integrity. When we engage, we seek to connect – we want to build bridges, not blow them up.

In the church, we try to connect with others based on our common values (values that flow from the Gospel). We look closely at situations where Gospel values are not being met, and then we Engage in order to bring the Gospel where it has not been heard and believed.

We come to church to listen and learn; to be nurtured & strengthened; and then we go forth! When Mass ends, we don't just leave; our mission continues. When Mass ends, the image is an arrow going forward, not a period that means "the end." Thanks be to God!
