

1. What is a setting?

- A. The time and place a story happens
- B. The people or animals in a story
- C. What happens in a story
- D. How a character feels

2. What might a character feel in a dark forest?

- A. scared
- B. happy
- C. awake
- D. bored

3. How could an author show the setting of a story?

- A. by telling how old a character is
- B. by telling how a character feels
- C. by describing the problem a character faces
- D. by describing how characters dress, talk, and live

4. Which of these settings would fit best in a fantasy book?

- A. a school
- B. a haunted castle
- C. a beach house
- D. a ski lodge

5. A story about knights and castles probably takes place in the

- A. future.
- B. present.
- C. evening.
- D. past.