First Reconciliation & First Eucharist Postponed

Dear parents,

Thanks for the patience you have had with us in this time of uncertainty. Please let your children know that they and you are in our thoughts and prayers.

The sacraments of both First Reconciliation and Eucharist will be postponed to an unknown date at this time. We will keep communicating with you with updates as soon as we have more certainty.

Please keep reviewing with your children and send back your child's responses to the interview questions. Your child will not be allowed to proceed to the celebration until you submit the responses to the interview questions we sent you before.

Let us know if you have any questions or comments about this information.

Here are some links to help your child continue growing in his/her faith,
