"At the moment of death we will not be judged according to the number of good deeds we have done or by the diplomas we have received in our lifetime. We will be judged according to the love we have put into our work."

Mother Teresa, Do Something Beautiful for God, (2020) Blue Sparrow

"Nothing will change your life so completely, absolutely, and forever like really learning how to pray."

Is your life what you thought it would be?

We all live unexpected lives in one way or another and sooner or later, we have to decide how to make the most of it. This is where we come face-to-face with two ongoing truths: We cannot live without the hope that things will change for the better, and we are not victims of our circumstances.

You are not what has happened to you. You are not what you have accomplished. You are not even who you are today or who you have become so far.

You are who and what you are still capable of becoming. You are your realized and unrealized potential. God sees you and all your potential, and he aches to see you embrace your best, truest, highest self. He yearns to help you and to accompany you in that quest.

Wherever you are, whatever you're feeling, however life has surprised and disappointed you, be reminded of one thing: The best is yet to come! Open yourself up to it, so you can see it and embrace it when it emerges!
