2020

There appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them.
And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit.

ACTS 2:3-4

Pentecost
SUNDAY

Notes from Father Tom...

This weekend we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost, the birthday of the Church. What we celebrate is that the Holy Spirit came to the disciples to empower them to continue the mission of Jesus. We also will be celebrating Mass in public. Those who do not consider themselves to be at risk in regard to the virus can attend these Masses but there is no obligation to attend.

We did have three Masses this week which were lightly attended. These Masses helped us test our readiness before the weekend when there might be more people. People were cooperative. All wore masks and sanitized their hands three times. All of these procedures are designed to help keep you and me safe. If you are planning on coming to church, you might find the videos we made last Monday to be helpful. They are in the archives on the web site.

I have been receiving a lot of notes and many people have been sending in their financial contributions. I appreciate both. Collections are at about half of normal right now. Whatever you are able to do is appreciated.

As we celebrate Pentecost, those preparing to be confirmed should be assured that we have not forgotten them. Confirmation and First Communion will be scheduled once we think that is safe to do.

Seminarian Cameron Popik, who is about to be ordained as a deacon will be joining us soon (maybe even this weekend). His ordination date has not yet been scheduled as far as I know. He is an enthusiastic young man and you will enjoy getting to know him. Sister Denise has been with us since Advent but then she was gone, then you were gone, so she seems new too. You will be hearing from them in the bulletin in coming weeks so you can get to know them better.

We will continue live streaming Masses even when we celebrate them in church. As I am writing this people are installing equipment so we will be able to live stream from church.

Have a good week and stay safe.

Father Tom
