THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." - Mt 28:18-19

Entonces Jesús se acercó a ellos y les dijo: "Me ha sido dado todo poder en el cielo y en la tierra. Vayan, pues, y enseñen a todas las naciones, bautizándolas en el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo". - Mt 28, 18-19

First Friday Adoration, June 4

This Friday, being the first Friday of the month, there will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament beginning after the 9 a.m. Mass on Thursday, and ending Friday at 8:45 a.m. with Benediction. A Mass will follow on Friday at 9 a.m. There is a sign-up sheet in the entryway, if you can commit to a half-hour of adoration. It is a wonderful gift to our world, that we spend time here in silent adoration before our God

Anointing of the Sick and Communion to those in the Hospital or Homebound

We would like to visit. Please call the parish office to arrange. If entering the hospital and wish to have a priest visit, please call the parish office before admission. To receive the Sacrament of Communion during your time in the hospital, please inform the hospital of your membership to our Church. (Due to privacy laws the hospital can no longer inform us).

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The immensity, scope, intimacy, and pervasiveness of God's presence is too intense for the human mind. We often limit God by our expectations of Him and have a hard time just letting God be God. Some people all too easily lose faith because God does not meet their expectations. Worse still, the idea of faith is rejected altogether by others because of polarities and experiences they have that don't square with who they need God to be. The Holy Trinity is one of those teachings that is best encountered rather than dissected. It is only through being present with the Trinity that we can experience both the immensity and otherness of God's presence as well as the intimacy of the God who wants us to call Him "dad." We feel the loving guidance of a God who wants to take us from fear and give us confidence. Our God of yesterday, today, and tomorrow is a God of all ages whose three-fold Presence invades all senses, seasons, and times. God, who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is much more than any of our expectations if we simply let God be who God is.

MONTICELLO RURAL KING

Christian Leader,

On behalf of Rural King and our associates, we would like to thank you for your participation in Church Week 2021. We know the past year has been filled with much uncertainty and unprecedented times, but we are grateful for the continued Kingdom work that you, as Christian leaders, are doing. It is a privilege to partner with you in giving back to the communities you serve. We know it is because of your dedicated patrons, who took the time to register and make a purchase, that this support is given to you and your mission.

2 Corinthians 9:6-8 "Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work."

Thank you for letting us partner with you and we pray this donation will bless your organization.

Position Open for Hire

We are currently seeking applicants for the position of Director of Evangelization.

The Director of Evangelization, Family Life, and Pastoral Ministries is a new position mandated by our Bishop for every pastorate of the Diocese. This person will assist the Pastor with the pastoral care of the pastorate. This role includes pastoral planning along with supervision of Directors/Coordinators of the following ministry areas: Religious Education, Adult Education, Sacramental Preparation, Liturgy and Music, Pastoral Care and Community Care, RCIA, Outreach, and other parish ministries. The Director of Evangelization supports, accompanies, and equips leaders in these ministerial areas to focus their attention beyond parishioners and toward the wider community as they strive to make disciples of Jesus Christ, building vibrant communities of faith, and inspiring people to be witnesses of Christ to the world. This person must have substantial experience in parish ministry. And, given the makeup of our particular pastorate, this person must have a facility with the Spanish language.

If you would like to apply for this position, please contact Fr. Chris as soon as possible. Molly Clark has been assigned by the Bishop to interview and hire this new position. You can contact her directly at: mclark@dol-in.org. Please pray that we find the right person for this important position.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Let God be who God is. This is often one of the hardest things to do. Rather than allowing the mystery of being created in the image and likeness of God unfold and take root in our lives, we change the dynamic. We want to be the creators who want to make God into the image and likeness we need God to be. We have a hard-enough time letting the people in our lives be who they are. We struggle even more so with God. It is almost as if we want God to be our imaginary friend who is not only with us whenever we need but becomes the Being we need God to be. Who is it that we want God to be today? A protector, disciplinarian, champion for justice, healer, advocate for our cause, grantor of prayers, guardian of my life, or the avenger? Our prayers tell an interesting story. When you pray, what does God look like?

Recently, a young woman who was feeling invisible, overlooked, ignored, and misunderstood by her husband struggled to make her feelings known and get his attention. Finally, she screamed, "Listen to me!" Thus, birth was given to a renewed and healthier relationship. We spend so much time storming heaven with our agenda and trying to make God into a "god" of our desires that we do not hear God saying, "Listen to me!" God is desperately trying to get our attention. God is saying, I am here among you as not one but three, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Many people seldom notice God's presence because they are so caught up with other spiritual cares and concerns. And, when the "god" they fashion and create doesn't produce as they desire, they shake the dust from their feet and move on. "I tried," they exclaim, "but God didn't listen."

Healthy relationships aren't built on making someone be who we need them to be. Healthy relationships are built on encounters of persons and the development of an appreciation of someone solely for who they are. Deeper relationships can even be found with two people marveling at each other and almost experiencing a childlike joy and giddiness when they see the other coming. Do you ever have these feelings about God? Believe it or not, God does for you! There is a joyful laughter that gives rise to and connects all three members of the Holy Trinity. It is this laughter, flowing from the very depths of the Godhead that not only keeps the Trinity in joyful unity but spills over into the creation of all beings and things. It is an expression of Divine Delight! Have you ever taken time away from your agenda to experience the Divine Joyfulness of God?

We can reach a connection of Presence wherein even the smallest of creatures suddenly radiate the fullness of God: the wonderful creation of their being, the innocence and playfulness of their movements, and the sustaining life breath that flows through their veins. The same God who created the heavens and the earth is the same God who wants you to call him "Dad" and the same God preserves your life and has all things in His care.
