Sunday Obligation Returned

Just a reminder, beginning last weekend, all Catholics in Indiana are once again obligated to attend Mass on Sunday (or the Vigil Mass on Saturday evening). The bishops' dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass, because of Covid, will no longer exist. There are exceptions, as always, for those who are seriously ill or who are caring for the very ill. Please advise your friends and families of that the obligation to attend Mass every Sunday has returned.

Sacristan Needed for 4:30 Saturday evening Mass

We are in need of a person to serve as sacristan for our Saturday evening Mass. We have some folks who are serving now, but we would like to have someone(s) in addition, so they could trade off and back each other up through the month. The sacristan helps set things up for the priest before Mass and cleans things up after. Anyone interested, please contact Fr. Chris.

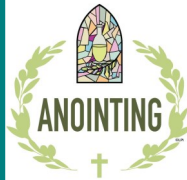

Last Week's Collection
July 4, 2021...will be available next week due to early submission

Communion Minister to the Sick needed

We are in need of a person to take Communion to the sick and shut-ins of our parish after our Sunday morning Mass. Our sick and elderly and shut-in parishioners are very dear to us, and they appreciate it so much when someone brings them Communion. Anyone interested in helping in this beautiful ministry, please contact Fr. Chris.

Anointing of the Sick and Communion to those in the Hospital or Homebound

We would like to visit. Please call the parish office to arrange. If entering the hospital and wish to have a priest visit, please call the parish office before admission. To receive the Sacrament of Communion during your time in the hospital, please inform the hospital of your membership to our Church. (Due to privacy laws the hospital can no longer inform us).

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God calls us to bring His Word to all corners of the earth. What does that mean for you and me? We are simple and humble folks trying to find our way through the Gospel and our world. After all, we are not professional preachers but gentle servants. Jesus summons us to take his message on the road and bring it from the pew to the pavement. We cannot keep the joy of the Gospel to ourselves but must bring it into every aspect of our lives: our families, our schools, our work, our corporations, our politics, our social circles, and our philosophies. We cannot just accept the wisdom of the world as true and conduct our lives as if the Good News is a separate matter. They are one. Jesus never asked his friends to go and come to hear the truth. He asked them to go to their homes and meet them one on one, face to face. When the rubber meets the road and the message is challenging, rejection is quite possible. That's the litmus test for whether we're really doing what we have been asked.

Adults interested in becoming Catholic or in just learning more about the Faith are invited to RCIA-(Adult preparation to join the Catholic).

When: Wednesday Evening: 6:30 PM–8:30 PM
Where: Fosselman Hall
For more information, contact:
Fr. Chris 574-583-5724

Position Open for Hire

We are currently seeking applicants for the position of Director of Evangelization.

The Director of Evangelization, Family Life, and Pastoral Ministries is a new position mandated by our Bishop for every pastorate of the Diocese. This person will assist the Pastor with the pastoral care of the pastorate. This role includes pastoral planning along with supervision of Directors/Coordinators of the following ministry areas: Religious Education, Adult Education, Sacramental Preparation, Liturgy and Music, Pastoral Care and Community Care, RCIA, Outreach, and other parish ministries. The Director of Evangelization supports, accompanies, and equips leaders in these ministerial areas to focus their attention beyond parishioners and toward the wider community as they strive to make disciples of Jesus Christ, building vibrant communities of faith, and inspiring people to be witnesses of Christ to the world. This person must have substantial experience in parish ministry. And, given the makeup of our particular pastorate, this person must have a facility with the Spanish language.

If you would like to apply for this position, please contact Fr. Chris as soon as possible. Molly Clark has been assigned by the Bishop to interview and hire this new position. You can contact her directly at: mclark@dol-in.org. Please pray that we find the right person for this important position.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Maybe the work is best left to the professionals. That's how many people view the preaching of the Gospel. That's the stuff priests, religious, deacons, lay ministers, and other professional Church people do. It has little to do with me. Well, that's not really true. The fact of the matter is that preaching the Gospel has everything to do with you, with all of us who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. Nobody gets off the hook from that job. The question is, however, how do we do it? Well, there's a safe way, which many choose, to preach the Gospel—and the risky way. The safe way pretty much keeps the Gospel in church and around like minded people. I say my prayers, go to Mass, contribute to the food pantry, tithe, and attend Bible Study. That pretty much covers the bases, right? Wrong.

The risky way is the more challenging way and for many, the "road less traveled." They must have had some amazing conversations with folks about God's kingdom, changing their hearts, forgiving sins, and looking at the world differently. They must have met people who were hurting, exiled from their communities, neglected, lost, or living self-insulated lives in a society that served the rich and neglected the poor. While there were many who welcomed what they had to say and the conversations they had, there were others who no doubt rejected them and literally tossed them out on their ears! The Gospel, while being a message of joy and hope, is not always received well by those who are very comfortable keeping things as they are.

The risky way involves example and conversation. We have to take the Gospel from church and carry it with us wherever we go. What kinds of conversations do we have with others? We interact with those closest to us, in our work, social circles, institutions, corporations, in politics, and beyond. Our conversations with others reveal a great deal about how we see things and what we consider important. If we are really interested in seeing God's vision for the world succeed, then we will talk about it. It will become a part of our everyday conversation and find its way into our interactions with others. How will we preserve the dignity of human life and encourage others to have a relationship with God? We must be the example, live value centered, virtuous lives, stand against injustice, combating racism, and learn ways to resolve conflicts without violence.

If we are going to succeed going forward, we have to find a way to bring our prayer centered lives into the marketplace. Our conversations have to change. Not everyone wants to hear what the Gospel has to say. That's a risk God asks us to take.
