<td>ELA- This week we will be focusing on writing structure and grammar. We will be diving our next book, The Boy Who Invented TV. This is one of our informational texts this year.</td>
<td>I will be gone for a staff development day on January 15th. Mrs. La Fontaine will be our substitute.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Math- We will be continuing our division of decimals chapter of Go Math. I do not want to rush unto our chapter test, so the chapter 5 test will be next week on Wednesday. Please continue to work on multiplication facts at home.</td>
<td>All School Mass on Thursday January 16th at 10:30. All students must be in full uniform</td>

Weekly Update
Week of 1/13

What’s Going on?

Religion- This week we are going to concentrate on the Cardinal Virtues. I will be continuing to choose one student a week at random to complete a “Saint Spotlight” to bring in on Tuesdays.

Social Studies- We will be starting our Road to Revolution unit. This will end with a culminating project and presentation instead of a traditional test. Details and expectations will be handed out this week.

Science- The students will be wrapping up for the science fair and beginning a space unit with Mrs. Davis.
