

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time – September 13, 2020

Dear Brothers and Sister in Christ.

Peace of the Lord be with you always. In today's Gospel Peter questioned Jesus: "Lord, how often my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times? Jesus answered: "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven." In this passage of the Holy Scripture, Jesus demonstrates that there is no limit to God's Mercy provided that one is genuinely repentant and sorry for one's sins. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states: "There is no offense, however serious, that the Church cannot forgive. "There is no one, however wicked and guilty, who may not confidently hope for forgiveness, provided his repentance is honest. Christ who died for all men desires that in his Church the gates of forgiveness should always be open to anyone who turns away from sin." (CCC 928)

Sister Faustina in her Diary of the Divine Mercy writes in the paragraph 1146 the words spoken to her by Jesus: "Let the greatest sinners place their trust in My mercy. They have the right before others to trust in the abyss of My mercy. My daughter, write about My mercy towards tormented souls. Souls that make an appeal to My mercy delight Me. To such souls I grant even more graces than they ask. I cannot punish even the greatest sinner if he makes an appeal to My compassion, but on the contrary, I justify him in My unfathomable and inscrutable mercy. Write: before I come as a just Judge, I first open wide the door of My mercy. He who refuses to pass through the door of My mercy must pass through the door of My justice."

Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior desires all souls to be saved but in our free will we can choose salvation or condemnation. May the Lord inspire our hearts to love God with all our heart, mind and soul and our neighbor as ourselves. Love you,

Fr. Pawel.
