“Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.”

-First Reading

Genesis 12: 1-4

The first 11 chapters of Genesis have very little historical foundation but they teach religious truths in parable form. Today we begin the 12th chapter which contains stories with identifiable historical roots. The first of these is the call of Abraham, whose original name was “Abram”.

-Second Reading

2 Timothy 1:8-10

The second letter to Timothy, although probably written some 30 years after Paul's death, was written in his name. This was an acceptable practice at that time. It was not a forgery, but an acknowledged way of continuing someone's spirit and authority. In this passage, the author encourages the readers in the face of trials.

There are many kinds of alms, the giving of which helps us to obtain pardon for our sins; but none is greater than that by which we forgive from our heart a sin that someone has committed against us.

RCIA:

The Rite of the Call to Continuing Conversion

During this time of Lent we are called to a profound conversion of life. We are called to remember all that the Lord has done for us. We are called to let God change our hearts and have a greater place in our lives.

This Sunday we have among us a sign of conversion to which the Lord calls us. That sign is our candidate, Tyler Cervantes. She is preparing to participate at Easter in Confirmation, Holy Eucharist and enter into full communion in the Church.

TO ALL EUCHARISTIC MINISTER'S and LECTOR'S!

Fr. Cervantes has requested to meet with all Eucharistic Minister's and Lector's after masses on Sunday, March 22. The English group will meet after 9:00am mass in the church and the Spanish group will meet after 12:00pm mass, also in the church.

Easter Blessings:

For those Parishioners who wish to have their homes and businesses blessed. Fr. Cirilo will be available beginning April 13th. Call the office if you are interested (530)934-3314.

Beware of Scams:

Beware there was an email received this week from someone claiming to be me (Father Cirilo). I would never ask anybody for money or anything of that sort, please be aware of these scams. -Fr. Cirilo Cervantes.
