26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

At that time, John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us." Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me." - Mk 9:38-39

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 26th, 2021

Dear Friends,

As one contemplates the readings from Sacred Scripture given to us by the Church for the Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time this year, being believers in Jesus we have been challenged to be faithful to God.

In the gospel reading from Mark, Jesus speaks directly to the responsibility that all believers have to reject sin and to never lead other folks to sin. The Lord said, “Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea.”

As we reflect upon these words of Jesus, may we be a good example to people. May we have the courage to change and reject sin. Sin and evil in all its ugliness is all around us. We should never deny that we are sinners, and we should become more aware of our own personal sinfulness.

Jesus suffered, died, and rose from the dead to atone for the sins of all humanity. Let us proceed to embrace and accept the person of Jesus. Devoted prayer, acts of charity, and a willingness to attend Holy Mass and receive the Sacrament of Penance can be very helpful in this process. We cannot fall into the “trap” where we think we are better than we are.

From the Catechism, read and reflect upon the Ten Commandments. Become more aware of those sinful actions that we often forget.

May God bless you for the effort that you make to be faithful to His message of love and mercy. May we think about our own personal salvation, and constantly pray for the conversion of sinners and the salvation of all souls. Be well and be safe!

God’s love and prayers always,

Fr. Ed

Helping Children in Homeless Shelters

Horizons for Homeless Children created the Playspace Program with the belief that play is essential to healthy childhood development, and every child has the right to play. Due to the pandemic, many children in shelters have been staying in their rooms and not able to socialize. Through the Playspace Program, these young children are being given the opportunity to heal and to gain cognitive, physical, and social/emotional skills essential to social and academic success. It also provides parents with free time to take a class, make a meal, or even shower. Horizons will be hosting online New Volunteer Orientations on Tuesday, September 28th, 6-8:30 pm. Learn more at horizonschildren.org.

Good News!

September 26, 2021

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

Nm 11:25-29; Jas 5:1-6;

Mk 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

No sacrifice is too extreme in pursuit of a dream. We will forego sleep, the enjoyment of a favorite pastime, the company of good friends—even the pleasure of good food. Ask anyone who has spent hours preparing for a recital, trying out for a position on an athletic team, or studying for an entrance exam. The same is true when one's livelihood is involved. Ask farmers, people in the military, teachers, or health-care workers. Ask new parents, or even those who have been at it for a long time. If we really value something or someone, no sacrifice is too great—at least for a while—when that cherished goal is in view.

We don't seem as willing to forfeit comfort when negative inclinations are involved, and we all have them: rivalry, jealousy, fury, selfishness, slander, gossip, conceit, to name a few. We know that such pettiness or rank cruelty can harm us as well as those we offend, but too often we seem unwilling to restrain such inclinations.

In today's Gospel passage, Jesus speaks quite strongly to such reticence. Does he really expect us to maim ourselves? Isn't that a bit extreme? The fact is, when we try to purge ourselves of reprehensible behavior it is like cutting off our hand or plucking out our eye. Ask anyone who deals with an addiction. If Jesus asks this of us, it means that we certainly have the strength to do it.
