Most Holy Trinity
Prv 8:22-31; Rom 5:1-5; Jn 16: 12-15

The trinity at first appears as the most abstract belief in Christianity. It touches the mystery of God's nature, how he exists, and how he acts. So, yes, it is mysterious. But as with all foundational truths, they have far-reaching effects. It is essential to grasp the basics because, if not, everything you build with the will be faulty. Thus it is vital for Christians to understand and believe in the Trinity. This is a basic building block of all we believe. "The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 234).

The pope and one of the earliest councils of bishop confronted just this question of the Trinity. At the Council of Nicaea in the year 325, the bishops discussed with Jesus revealed to us about the Trinity. The fruit of their meeting nearly 1,700 years go is the Nicene Creed that we still pray today.

The three divine persons are one and the same in their divine nature, but distinct in their relations. God the Father Almighty in the Creator of heaven and earth. Jesus Christ is the Word through whom the Father created all things and the Savior he sent into the world. The Holy Spirit is the love of the Father and Son who is sent to sanctify humanity by leading people in the truth revealed by the Father and Son. God is the Creator, Jesus the Savior, and the Holy Spirit is Sanctifier and Teacher. Three divine persons acting together with a common mission, but one Go.

Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

May the Mother of Jesus, and our Mother, always smile on you and obtain for you, from her Most Holy Son, every heavenly blessing. Pray to Our Blessed Mother Mary.

Is there a simple way of understanding how I am to be a Catholic father?

I wish you and all father's a Father's Day filled with God's protection of you and your family. May God surround you all with a circle of love.

The simplest way to understand father-hood is to pray the Lord's Prayer, the Our Father. This prayer was originally spoken in Aramaic, a language related to Hebrew. Aramaic was probably Jesus' native tongue. The word Jesus used for "father" was an Aramaic word: abba, which means "papa" or "dad". When we say the Our Father, we speak to God in a very intimate way; we pray to God not as a distant figure but as a close and comfortable member of the family. It is this rather socking intimacy that Jesus wants to get across to his disciples when he teaches them to pray.

As you relate to God in a very intimate way, you should relate in the same manner to your spouse and family. Intimacy means closeness, involvement, love, and understanding. As a father, you must be physically present in the home. But more than just a physical presence is necessary. You must also seek an emotional closeness with your spouse and children. You must show a constant interest in their lives. Encourage them by doing things with them. You must strive constantly reject anger, rage, or unforgiving attitude, and instead embrace gentleness, encouragement, and understanding. God the Father does all these things for us.

Fr. Paul J Coury, CSSR
