12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings today are a reminder of who we are and whose we are. God answers Job after Job's struggle to understand why tragedy has come into his life. Paul's letter reminds us that God is still active, re-creating us and the world around us. Mark's Gospel shows us disciples who are frightened by the weather: their boat that appears sturdy and capable when the waters are calm now appears so tiny and vulnerable. Once the disciples waken him, Jesus calms the storm and asks why they are afraid. In all these readings, we have very strong images that speak to us of trust and peace.

We find ourselves often getting swept up in the storms of life and this can be overwhelming. We can relate to Job and the disciples—we struggle with trusting God and we easily get anxious. We wonder where God is as we face challenging circumstances.

"Peace! Be still!" Jesus is inviting us to trust him fully. Though we may be feeling uncertain or scared, God is letting us know God's faithfulness is stronger than what we are feeling in any given moment. We are to trust God's perspective rather than our own.

We always want to know why things are happening. Instead, let us ask God how these circumstances can help us grow in holiness.
