Marriage Moments by Susan Vogt, www.Susanvogt.net

It usually makes marriage easier when spouses are of the same religion, But, differences in faith or practice can also lead you to a deeper, even more creative concept of God. Try "Are You Soul Mates of Divided Spirits"

(<http://susanvogt.net/enrichmentEX.htm#soulmates>) to explore your spiritual connection.

Parenting Pointers: Sunday is Mother's Day. Although sometimes spouses honor their wives on this day, let your children take their proper role. If they don't have the money or an idea for a gift, fathers can suggest a guaranteed pleaser- "Top 10 reasons I love my mother..."

Word of Life: If you experience difficulty bringing a child into your family, know that you are not alone. God is with you, and his Church desires to walk with you... God has a beautiful plan for your life as a married couple. Seek his guidance, and let the healing power of prayer, a conversation in which "heart speaks unto heart," strengthen you.

Carnations on Mother's Day: Carnations are traditionally associated with Mother's Day.

According to legend, this goes back to the Passion of the Christ. Seeing Christ's sufferings, His mother, Mary, shed tears, which fell on the ground. These tears are supposed to have turned into the beautiful and fragrant carnations, making them a symbol of a mother's undying love. The word carnation comes from incarnation referring to incarnation of God made flesh. The Latin word carnis means flesh.
