Parish Announcements

January 30/31 – Student representatives from St. James Catholic School will be here to speak at both weekend masses.

Thank you! – The family of Marla K. Fackler would like to sincerely thank all of those who have sent cards, letters, food, flowers, donations, prayers and well wishes during this trying time. We have been so uplifted by the tremendous support of our community. Marla would have been so moved by all the love and care you have shown. Many, many thanks!

Larry Dale, Krystal and the Fackler Family

February 2 (The Presentation of the Lord (Candlemas)) –

Jesus is the light who came into the world to dispel sin and darkness. For this reason, Fr. Hopper will bless all candles that will be used in the coming year at the 9:30 am mass. Bring any candles that you would like to have blessed, as well. The church asks that candles be at least 50% beeswax.

Blessing of Throats – a general Blessing of Throats will take place at both masses, the weekend of February 6/7.

Cemetery Plot Increase – Beginning February 17, 2021, the cost of all cemetery plots will increase. The new prices will be as follows:

$750 for active members of St. Martin of Tours

$1,500 for past members of St. Martin of Tours

$2,500 for non-members of St. Martin of Tours

Found – A ring was found in the gym after the Christmas holiday masses. If this belongs to you, please stop by the office to pick it up.

Altar Flower Arrangements – There are many available weekends to donate altar flowers in memory of a loved one, or in honor of a special event or person. Drop the altar flower form in the collection basket or stop by the office to reserve your weekends.

Faith Formation

ATTENTION HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS! The Saint Martin Youth Ministry Program is offering our students a chance to receive $500 in scholarship money. Applications have already been sent out. If you have not received one, please contact Ashley Law ASAP!

Upcoming Religious Ed Schedule –

Class times are 6:30 pm – 7:30 pm. All in-person classes February 3, 10, 24. No class on Feb. 17 (Ash Wednesday)

Community News

May She Enter into the Joy of the Kingdom

Our sincerest sympathies go to the family and friends of Mrs. Irene R. Whelan, who passed away on January 24, 2021. Irene is survived by her daughters, Carolyn Canaday, and Angela Whelan McKenzie, and many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren. A funeral mass for Irene was at St. Martin of Tours at 11:00 am on Thursday, January 28, 2021 with burial in the St. Martin Cemetery. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.
Amen

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time – “The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes.”

Mark 1: 22

Listening to the authority of Jesus’ teachings helps us not be confused by the perceived ‘wisdom’ of the world. The world focuses only on self, while the authority of Jesus teaches a steward to think of others rather than oneself.

Candlemas +

An interesting tidbit to highlight Candlemas Day. This day was important in the lives of farmers. An old English song went as follows: “If Candlemas be fair and bright, / Come, Winter, have another flight. / If Candlemas brings clouds and rain, / Go, Winter, and come not again.”
So, if the bright sun “overshadows” the brightness of Candlemas Day, there will be more winter. However, if the light of Candlemas Day radiates through the gloom and darkness of the day, the end of winter is near. In America, Protestants decided we should replace Catholic Candlemas Day with Groundhog Day.
