Fr. Francisco's Weekly Reflection

The author of the book of Hebrews writes, "Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested" (2:18). What this means to us is know that Jesus understands our suffering and struggles, because He experienced it. This ought to give us hope, as we know that God understands what we are going through in our sorrows and our joy. Because, of Jesus' experience in life, He can have compassion and mercy upon us, and we would know that we are never alone. Even, if we feel that way. When we feel that we are alone or that God is far away; it is when we have to engage our will.

Acknowledge our feelings, "I feel alone, angry, confused, etc.", but engage the will to state, "I know that you are here with me, and would never leave me alone." We have a loving God who is like us in all ways but sin. May we rest in His loving embrace. Our Lady of Guadalupe...Ora pro Nobis!

Reflexión Semanal del Padre Francisco

El autor del libro de Hebreos escribe, "Porque él mismo fue probado por lo que sufrió, él es capaz de ayudar a los que están siendo probados (2:18). Lo que esto significa para nosotros es saber que Jesús entiende nuestro sufrimiento y luchas, porque Él mismo lo experimentó. Esto debe darnos esperanza, ya que sabemos que Dios entiende por lo que estamos pasando en nuestras penas y en nuestra alegría. Porque de la experiencia de Jesús en la vida, Él es capaz de tener compasión y misericordia sobre nosotros, y sabríamos que nunca estamos solos. Incluso, si nos sentimos de esa manera. Cuando sentimos que estamos solos o que Dios está lejos; es cuando tenemos que comprometer nuestra voluntad. Reconocer nuestros sentimientos, me siento solo, enojado, confundido, etc.a, pero comprometer la voluntad de declarar, sé que usted está aquí conmigo, y nunca me dejaría solo.a Tenemos un Dios amoroso que es como nosotros en todas las formas excepto en el pecado. Que descansemos en Su abrazo amoroso. ¡Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe...

Ora pro nobis!
