Fr. Francisco's Weekly Reflection

Before we were baptized we were under a death sentence. By Jesus's death and resurrection He has purchased us for himself. By our Baptism we have been given the gift of eternal life. Eternal life is only possible with God. Baptism makes us citizens of God's Kingdom, citizens of heaven, citizens of His Church. By our Baptism we also become parishioners. Everyone who is baptized has a parish, a diocese and a bishop. Being a parishioner is our response, our acceptance of being admitted into the Church founded by Jesus Christ. We show our gratitude by our response to the church. We worship God in our parish church together with our brother and sister parishioners. The church is not just some general, theoretical group of people. The church is a physical, geographical and local. It is a specific, local Church, with all the local Christian parishioners united in common with Christ. Paul frequently wrote to his flock to encourage them to work together, to be of one mind, one Baptism, one-Faith, one bread. Our word for that is "Parishoner". If you accept and value your Baptism and the redemption from sin and death, then you need to respond! We should thank God for his precious Gift! We need to say to God as the Psalmist said, "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will." As parishioners we say to the church, our parish " You can count on me. Here am I". We Worship with our fellow parishioners in assembly on Sundays and Holy Days. We offer our ministry through the Church , with the community. We offer our time, talent and our treasure, recognizing that everything we have comes from God , and we are eternally grateful. When we register as parishioners we say "Im committed to you" and "You can count on me", much like we do in the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony of Holy Orders. Too many people wish remain anonymous, disconnected, independent, uncommitted. Instead we say," Here am I, Lord; come to do your will." As parishioners we want the Church to know we are here, and that the Church can count on us. If you are not sure if you are registered with a parish, please contact the parish office. If you have not already registered with the parish, I invite you to do so and to say,"Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will. Count on me." Father Mark Hamlet

Reflexion Semanal del Padre Francisco

Antes de ser bautizado, estabamos bajo sentencia de muerte. Por la muerte de Jesus y su resurreccion El nos ha comprado para El mismo. Por nuestro bautismo nos a dado el regalo de la vida eterna para vivirla con El. La muerte ya no nos gobierna. Sin bautismo no Podemos esperar la vida eterna. La vida eterna es solamente posible con Dios. El bautismo nos hace ciudadanos del reino de Dios. Ciudadanos del cielo, ciudadanos de su iglesia. Por nuestro bautismo Tambien somos parroquianos. Cada uno que sea bautizado tiene una iglesia, una diocesis y un Obispo. El ser un parroquiano es nuestra respuesta, nuestra aceptacion de ser admitidos dentro de la iglesia fundada por Cristo Jesus. Nosotros mostramos nuestra gratitud atraves de nuestra respuesta a la iglesia. Alabamos a Dios en nuestra Iglesia junto con nuestros hermanos y hermanas parroquianos. La iglesia no es solo algo o un grupo teorico de personas. La iglesia es fisica, geografica y local. Es una Iglesia especifica y local, con todos los parroquianos locales cristianos Unidos en communion con cristo. Pablo frecuentemente escribio a su rebaño motivandolos a trbajar juntos con una sola mente un solo bautismo y una sola fe un solo cuerpo. Nuestra palabra para esto es un parroquiano. Como parroquianos queremos que la iglesia sepa que estamos aqui y que la iglesia cuente con nosotros. Si usted no est asegurado que esta registrado en la iglesia favor de llamar a la oficina de la parroquia. Si usted no se ah registrado en la parroquia les invito a utilizar los sobres que estan en las entradas de la Parroquia cada vez que asisten a misa. " Aqui estoy, Señor, vengo a hacer tu voluntad. Cuenta con migo"
