International Day of Prayer and Awareness Against Human Trafficking, February 8th

National Human Trafficking Hotline

1-888-373-7888

Get Help, Report A Tip, Request Services

The International Day of Prayer and Awareness against Trafficking in Persons event is celebrated on the Feast day of Saint Josephine Bakhita, a Canossian Sister who was kidnapped and sold into slavery in Sudan.

"I have stated several times that these new forms of slavery – human trafficking, forced labor, prostitution, organ trade – are very serious crimes, a wound on the body of contemporary humanity.

The whole of society is called to grow in this awareness, especially with regard to national and international legislation, in order to prosecute the traffickers and redirect their unjust gains to the rehabilitation of victims."

- Pope Francis
