Catholic Diocese of Lincoln - Eucharistic Family Rosary Crusade:

III. Saint Padre Pio called the Rosary his spiritual weapon. He prayed more than 20 rosaries a day as he heard confessions for 10 to 12 hours a day. As he prayed, the Lord would illuminate his mind so that he could read the souls of his penitents and help them confess their sins with true contrition.

- One time a person, who had been away from confession for more than 25 years, entered the confessional and attempted to say his sins but was so embarrassed he just kept stuttering. Padre Pio said: "Be calm my son" and proceeded to list every mortal sin of the penitent and the number of times he had committed them. After Padre Pio had said the last mortal sin, the penitent said, "Yes Father".
- The devil hated Padre Pio so much that he would attack him in his room at night and throw him on the floor. But Padre Pio always won the battle because he prayed the Rosary.

Thank You – St. George Soup Dinner

I just want to thank everyone for all your hard work to make our 35th annual soup dinner a success. The weather cooperated with us, as I am glad it wasn't today. If you have any comments, good or bad please let me know so we can make adjustments if needed. I wish to thank Kim Byrd for being our chairman this year even though she is no longer a parishioner of St. George she helped us out! May God Bless you all for making this a success. It is 1 day out of the year the parish family comes together for the good of the parish. I thank God I have so many wonderful people to work with. May God Bless all of you!
Thank you, Barb Soukup

Announcements

February is Catholic Press Month Southern Nebraska Register: SNR: <http://www.lincolndiocese.org/snr>

Nebraska Strongly Represented at EWTN's Catholic News Agency – Cover story Southern NE Register
The Catholic News Agency and EWTN employ a large number of Nebraskans. Read more about: Mary Rezac, Kate Veik, JD Flynn, Alan Holdren, Hanna Brockhaus,

In Layman's Terms—Have you read the Southern Nebraska Register's new column, In Layman's Terms, by Bob Sullivan (who is from this area). He has good insights. One column was a parable about a young man who set his "bar" of faith low, only to find himself jumping much lower than the bar, when in fact he had been given the gifts to set the bar much higher! Another article spoke of how, though our era is the most literate in history, yet we read less because of the internet and therefore stunt our faith.

World Day of Prayer This is an ecumenical movement of women of many faith traditions who come together to observe a common day of prayer. The theme for 2018 is "All God's Creation is Very Good." St. Charles will host World Day of Prayer on Friday, March 2nd at 1:30pm. Everyone is welcome!

Eucharistic Family Rosary Crusade
As an ongoing part of the crusade, a program is implemented to allow men and women of parishes across the diocese to spend time in fellowship. Groups of parishioners, known as "Saints on Tap" for men and "Vino et Veritas" for women, will have the opportunity to meet once a month for six months to discuss a different saint who was known to have a special devotion to the rosary. They include saints Dominic, Pope Pius V, Louis de Montfort, Maximilian Kolbe, Padre Pio and Pope John Paul II.
