Announcements

Hostings our Mission Coop Priest – This Summer we invited a Missionary priest, a member of the Herald of Good News, to our parish. Each year a new missionary can help understand the needs of our Catholic faithful beyond our country. We will be the first parish (July 7-8) to welcome our missionary from India. I understand he is new to our country. Our priest, missionary, had the months of May and June to process his entry paperwork. While he is in our parish, would you like to help host our visitor?

Inquiry Class in the Catholic Faith to Start in June
Instructing in Faith/Hope/Love: I will begin June 25th an inquiry class: Exercise Faith/Hope/Love. Please pray the Holy Spirit prayer for all of us: “Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. ... (below)” Everything needs to begin with prayer. We can begin in Church. I think Monday will be best.

The Fathers' Day Remembrance supports Saunders County Right to Life. Thank you for honoring your Fathers and also assisting a local pro-life effort.

Sacred Heart Cemetery Reminder: Please have all items not in permanent containers removed by Friday, June 15th. Thank you! The Mowing Crew

Father's Day Quotes: (St. John Weston) (1) “My father gave me the greatest gift anyone could give another person, he believed in me.” –Jim Valvano (2) “A good father is one of the unsung, unpraised, unnoticed, and yet one of the most valuable assets in our society.” –Billy Graham (3) “The heart of a father is the masterpiece of nature.” –Antoine-Francois Prevost (4) “By profession I am a soldier and take pride in that fact. But I am prouder—infinately prouder—to be a father. A soldier destroys in order to build; the father only builds, never destroys.” –Douglas MacArthur (5) “By the time a man realizes that maybe his father was right, he usually has a son who thinks he's wrong.” –Charles Wadsworth (6) “A father is neither an anchor to hold us back nor a sail to take us there, but a guiding light whose love shows us the way.” –Unknown

Peter's Pence Collection: Next week our diocese will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, you have envelopes in your package of envelopes that get sent out, this is which provides the Holy Father with the funds he needs to carry out his most important charitable works. The proceeds benefit the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Your gift makes you a pilgrim of charity around the globe.

Every BODY Matters – Parents and Teachers, do you have a tough time answering your children's questions about their bodies in light of today's culture? Join us to hear international speaker Monica Ashour present stories, statistics, and objectives about good choices that prepare students for healthy, whole, and harmonious lives. The concepts she shares will help you form your children, grades PreK-8, in their identity and dignity as human persons as well as to successfully navigate their way in a culture that creates confusion about the body. Day sessions for teachers and catechists are available June 20-22 in Lincoln as well as evening sessions for parents. <https://tinyurl.com/y89afpo8> for more details.

Spiritual Corner (St. John Weston) "You will never be happy if your happiness depends on getting solely what you want. Change the focus. Get a new center. Will what God wills, and your joy no man shall take from you." -Venerable Fulton Sheen

A Little Bit of Humor (St. John Weston)

When a squirrel slipped into my house, I did the logical thing: I panicked and called my father. "How do you get a squirrel out of the basement?" I shrieked. Dad advised me to leave a trail of peanut butter and crackers from the basement to the outside. It worked - the squirrel ate his way out of the house. Unfortunately, he passed another squirrel eating his way in.

Catechism of the Catholic Church (C.C.C.) on Creation

287 The truth about creation is so important for all of human life that God in his tenderness wanted to reveal to his People everything that is salutary to know on the subject. Beyond the natural knowledge that every man can have of the Creator, 124 God progressively revealed to Israel the mystery of creation. He who chose the patriarchs, who brought Israel out of Egypt, and who by choosing Israel created and formed it, this same God reveals himself as the One to whom belong all the peoples of the earth, and the whole earth itself; he is the One who alone "made heaven and earth". 125

288 Thus the revelation of creation is inseparable from the revelation and forging of the covenant of the one God with his People. Creation is revealed as the first step towards this covenant, the first and universal witness to God's all-powerful love. 126 and so, the truth of creation is also expressed with growing vigour in the message of the prophets, the prayer of the psalms and the liturgy, and in the wisdom sayings of the Chosen People. 127

289 Among all the Scriptural texts about creation, the first three chapters of Genesis occupy a unique place. From a literary standpoint these texts may have had diverse sources. The inspired authors have placed them at the beginning of Scripture to express in their solemn language the truths of creation - its origin and its end in God, its order and goodness, the vocation of man, and finally the drama of sin and the hope of salvation. Read in the light of Christ, within the unity of Sacred Scripture and in the living Tradition of the Church, these texts remain the principal source for catechesis on the mysteries of the "beginning": creation, fall, and promise of salvation.
