Announcements

Hostings our Mission Coop Priest – This Summer we invited a Missionary priest, a member of the Herald of Good News, to our parish. Each year a new missionary can help understand the needs of our Catholic faithful beyond our country. We will be the first parish (July 7-8) to welcome our missionary from India. I understand he is new to our country. Our priest, missionary, had the months of May and June to process his entry paperwork. While he is in our parish, would you like to help host our visitor?

Inquiry Class in the Catholic Faith to Start in June
Instructing in Faith/Hope/Love: I will begin June 25th an inquiry class: Exercise Faith/Hope/Love after Mass. Please pray Holy Spirit: “Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. ... (below)” Everything needs to begin with prayer. We can begin in Church. I think Monday will be best.

Sacred Heart Cemetery Reminder: Please have all items not in permanent containers removed by Friday, June 15th. Thank you! The Mowing Crew

Spiritual Corner (St. John Weston) "No one can receive anything except what is given him from heaven. You yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but I have been sent before him. He who has the bride is the bridegroom; the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly at the bridegroom's voice; therefore this joy of mine is now full. He must increase, but I must decrease."
-John the Baptist; John 3:27-30

A Little Bit of Humor (St. John Weston)
Two old men had been best friends for years, and they both lived to their early 90's. Suddenly, one of them falls deathly ill. His friend comes to visit him on his deathbed, and they're reminiscing about their long friendship, when the dying man's friend asks, "Listen, when you die, do me a favor. I want to know if there's baseball in heaven." The dying man said, "We've been friends for years, this I'll do for you." And then he dies. A couple of days later, his surviving friend is sleeping when he hears his friend's voice. The voice says, "I've got some good news and some bad news. The good news is that there's baseball in heaven." "What's the bad news?" "You're pitching tomorrow."

Unity of Christ and the Church (Catechism of Catholic Church) 796 The unity of Christ and the Church, head and members of one Body, also implies the distinction of the two within a personal relationship. This aspect is often expressed by the image of bridegroom and bride. the theme of Christ as Bridegroom of the Church was prepared for by the prophets and announced by John the Baptist.<sup>234</sup> The Lord referred to himself as the "bridegroom."<sup>235</sup> The Apostle speaks of the whole Church and of each of the faithful, members of his Body, as a bride "betrothed" to Christ the Lord so as to become but one spirit with him.<sup>236</sup> The Church is the spotless bride of the spotless Lamb.<sup>237</sup> "Christ loved the Church and gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her."<sup>238</sup> He has joined her with himself in an everlasting covenant and never stops caring for her as for his own body.<sup>239</sup>

This is the whole Christ, head and body, one formed from many . . . whether the head or members speak, it is Christ who speaks. He speaks in his role as the head (ex persona capitis) and in his role as body (ex persona corporis). What does this mean? "The two will become one flesh. This is a great mystery, and I am applying it to Christ and the Church."<sup>240</sup> and the Lord himself says in the Gospel: "So they are no longer two, but one flesh."<sup>241</sup> They are, in fact, two different persons, yet they are one in the conjugal union, . . . as head, he calls himself the bridegroom, as body, he calls himself "bride."<sup>242</sup>
