Class in the Catholic Faith – Symbolon (Formed.org)

Monday: September 17, 6:45 – 7:45 pm (Q&A 7:30 pm)

Session 1: The Sacraments: Baptism and Confirmation Most of us are familiar with the word "sacrament." We participate in sacramental rites often as Catholics. But do we understand what a sacrament is—and what it means for us and our everyday lives?

Symbolon: Living the Faith: In the Catholic Church, there are seven sacraments that are part of a Christian's spiritual life from birth to death. They are signs of grace instituted by Christ to give his divine life to us through the work of the Holy Spirit.

But what are these sacraments? Why are they necessary for a relationship with Jesus? And how do the sacraments affect our lives on a daily basis?

These are some of the questions we will be talking about this week. We will be looking at the seven sacraments recognized by the Catholic Church in general, and then we will focus more specifically on two Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism and Confirmation. Along the way, we will see how the sacraments are part of our "toolkit" as we grow and mature in our faith and our relationship with the Church.

Learn (September 14): Abortion fails women.

Abortion is often portrayed as essential for women to achieve freedom and equality with men, yet many report feeling some degree of pressure or aborting to please someone else—often their partner. 1 Further, after the abortion, many women report feelings of depression, suicidal or self-harm inclinations, sadness, shame, and regret. 2

For example, Cynthia Carney in an amicus brief submitted to the Supreme Court described the aftermath of her abortion saying, "For 23 years, I went into crying spells, depression, suicidal thoughts.

Emotionally it devastated me." Camelia Murphy explained, "I have suffered with low self-esteem, self-hatred, suicidal impulses, constant anxiety (especially about sex and about making decisions)." Donna Razin said that her abortion caused her "[d]eep regret – initially I was suicidal – as the years have progressed I have developed a heightened level of bitterness and anger and self-hate." 3 Women would be better served if society tried to creatively answer the needs of single mothers, mothers trying to get through school, mothers needing higher or more stable finances, etc. rather than telling them that the death of their children is the best answer. We can and should do better for all women.

How Married Couples Can Learn From God The Art of Love

Philip Kosloski – September 3, 2018 <http://popesprayerusa.net/>

When speaking to engaged couples in 2014, Pope Francis urged them to found their relationship on the rock of a love that endures the test of time and to pray to God to strengthen that bond.

“In the Our Father prayer we say, ‘Give us this day our daily bread.’ Married couples may also learn to pray, ‘Give us this day our daily love,’ teach us to love each other, to care for each other. The more you entrust yourselves to the Lord, the more your love will be ‘forever’, able to renew itself and to overcome every difficulty.”

It is important to recognize that love comes from God and if we desire to love another person, we must draw that love from his Most Sacred Heart.

God is the greatest lover of all time, continually showing us, to the point of death on a cross, how much he loves us. Who better to turn to if we want to learn the art of love?

Additionally, prayer is one of the most intimate aspects of a couple's life together and extremely vital to their success. It makes each other vulnerable and allows a couple to join hearts at a spiritual level. Married couples are meant to be “one flesh,” but not just at the level of the body. More importantly, married couples should be “one flesh” at the level of the heart.

One practical suggestion is to make the Daily Offering together as a couple. This will greatly enrich your lives as you offer your entire day, together, as a unified sacrifice to God.

As we go about our daily lives, let us examine our own relationships and ask God to come in and teach us the pathway of the heart, loving others as he has loved us.
