Treasures of the Church: Relic Exposition + Healing

Ministry - Spirit Catholic Radio, as a part of our 20th anniversary theme "Together on a Journey to Sainthood," is excited to bring you Treasures of the Church—a teaching and exposition of more than 150 sacred relics—some believed to be as old as 2,000 years. Treasures of the Church is also a healing ministry, with reports of healing among a number of visitors to the exposition. Among the treasures are relics of St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Faustina. In addition, there will be a piece of a veil believed to have belonged to Our Lady and one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world. Presented by Fr. Carlos Martins of the Companions of the Cross.

The veneration of relics is a communion with the heroes of our Christian faith, asking for their powerful intercession. Many people have reported outstanding blessings and conversions through this ministry, and many have reported healings. Attendees are encouraged to bring their articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/family members which may be touched to the reliquaries as a means of intercessory prayer. <https://spiritcatholicradio.com/20-2/treasures/>

Half Measures - K of C Columbia June, 2019

Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori

We must respond to challenges as Catholics by making a commitment to Christ and the mission of Evangelization

SUPPOSE IT'S TIME to change the oil in your car. The owner's manual specifies that the engine requires five quarts of oil, but you put in only two and a half. Some days later, the engine light comes on and your car stalls in traffic. Listening to a chorus of angry horns and epithets, you think to yourself: "Maybe I should have put in the full five quarts."

Half measures. We're tempted to use them all the time. You probably have your own examples of halfhearted efforts that made things worse instead of better.

We also can be prone to half measures when it comes to our Catholic faith. In many parts of the world, including the United States, Mass attendance is down. Our absent Catholics aren't merely out of town; many are gone. For a variety of distressing reasons, they are disconnected from the Lord, the Church, the Mass and the sacraments. Studies reveal the sad fact that there are now more disaffiliated former Catholics than those who are practicing.

We talk a lot about evangelization, but things continue to get worse. So what's the answer?

St. Paul VI reminded us that evangelization is not merely one of the things the Church does; the mission to spread the Gospel constitutes the very heart of the Church's identity. The Church exists to proclaim, spread and celebrate the Good News by word, sacrament and charity. Woe to us if we do not preach the Gospel! (cf. 1 Cor 9:16).

The Gospel, after all, is not merely words. It is the incarnate savior who, in his boundless mercy, has forgiven our sins and unlocked the gates of heaven.

The answer, then, is not to stop talking about evangelization. Rather, the problem is how we go about this work. Not unlike the disciples prior to the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, we hesitate to "cry out full-throated and unsparingly" (Isaiah 58:1) in bearing witness to Jesus. We are likewise prone to half measures in repenting and believing in his Gospel; in instilling the teaching of Christ in ourselves and our families; and in living the Gospel both in our personal lives and in the wider society.

When the sound of the trumpet is faint, it's no wonder so few hear it.

Take, for example, a parish that is stagnant and shrinking. Its leadership might be tempted to address the problem with half measures, tweaking what's usually done by adding more friendly greeters at the door of the church or additional opportunities for socializing after Sunday Mass. Nothing is wrong with these things; in fact, they are very important. But lacking genuine missionary conversion, moved by the Holy Spirit, a parish will not experience renewal.

Genuine missionary conversion includes an urgent summons to prayer and repentance, first and foremost exemplified by the parish clergy and leadership. It also requires concentrated attention on good preaching and reverent liturgy; abundant opportunities for eucharistic adoration and confession; personal outreach to absent parishioners; sound catechesis for parishioners of all ages, especially the young; support of married couples and families; loving assistance to the sick and the dying; generous outreach to the poor and vulnerable; and more.

What about growth in the Knights of Columbus? Here, too, half measures will not do. For example, a business-as-usual membership drive may not bring the desired results. But when a council prayerfully commits itself to implementing the Faith in Action model, it can truly make an impact. When Knights are seen as growing in their relationship with Christ and in their life of prayer, banding together to serve actively the needs of the wider community, living the vocation of marriage and family joyfully and generously, and protecting vulnerable human life lovingly — others will want to join.

People are hungry. They are searching. They are looking for the real deal. Let's be done with half measures, especially in this season when we celebrate the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon his Church.
