Thank You Columban - Fr John Burger Thank you for welcoming Fr. John Burger to our parishes. Please, use the Mission Coop envelope to help the Columban missions. The Columban Fathers website is www.columbanmission.org. This site has videos from the missions to engage in dialogue with the Columbans.

Missionary Cooperative Program (Appeal): Each year over 150 missionary dioceses & religious orders request permission to come to our diocese to give an appeal for financial support. This appeal is a major source of funding for these missionaries & the monies collected in our parish go directly to that missionary diocese or religious for the poor that they serve. These funds are used to feed, house & educate the poor & orphans, provide medical care, build churches, schools, clinics, catechetical training centers, dig wells, etc. & educate candidates for the priesthood & religious life & provide many other necessities. Thank you for your generosity!

Does your Marriage need a Tune Up? Or even a Major Overhaul?

Sometimes a marriage can run along fine and then things change. They may need your time and attention. Sometimes lines of communication break down and they need repair. Sometimes our focus moves away from our marriage and family and needs a little redirection. Sometimes a fair or average marriage is just not enough. Have you ever thought to yourself, "How can I make my marriage better?" If so, Retrouvaille can help. Retrouvaille is marriage program for couples whose marriage has become off course. It begins with a weekend program that can help get your relationship back on track. It is an effective program that has worked for thousands of couples and it can work for your marriage. For more information about a Retrouvaille Weekend program. August 23-25 to register call 1-800-470-2230 Or www.helpourmarriage.org, www.retrouvaille.org

Asked and Answered: Scott Hahn Reflects on Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Genesis 18:20–32; Psalm 138:1–3, 6–8; Colossians 2:12–14; Luke 11:1–13

Though we be “but dust and ashes,” we can presume to draw near and speak boldly to our Lord, as Abraham dares in this week’s First Reading.

But even Abraham—the friend of God (see Isaiah 41:8), our father in the faith (see Romans 4:12)—did not know the intimacy that we know as children of Abraham, heirs of the blessings promised to his descendants (see Galatians 3:7, 29).

The mystery of prayer, as Jesus reveals to His disciples in this week’s Gospel, is the living relationship of beloved sons and daughters with their heavenly Father. Our prayer is pure gift, made possible by the “good gift” of the Father—the Holy Spirit of His Son. It is the fruit of the New Covenant by which we are made children of God in Christ Jesus (see Galatians 4:6–7; Romans 8:15–16). Through the Spirit given to us in Baptism, we can cry to Him as our Father—knowing that when we call He will answer.

Jesus teaches His disciples to persist in their prayer, as Abraham persisted in begging God’s mercy for the innocent of Sodom and Gomorrah.

For the sake of the one just Man, Jesus, God spared the city of man from destruction (see Jeremiah 5:1; Isaiah 53), “obliterating the bond against us,” as Paul says in this week’s Epistle.

On the Cross, Jesus bore the guilt of us all, canceled the debt we owed to God, the death we deserved to die for our transgressions. We pray as ones who have been spared, visited in our affliction, saved from our enemies. We pray always a prayer of thanksgiving, which is the literal meaning of Eucharist. We have realized the promise of this week’s Psalm: We worship in His holy temple, in the presence of angels, hallowing His name.

In confidence we ask, knowing that we will receive, that He will bring to completion what He has done for us—raising us from the dead, bringing us to everlasting life along with Him.
