JUNE RESPECT LIFE GATHERING

The June Respect Life Gathering (Focus on End of Life Issues) will be held on Tuesday, June 19, 2018, at St. Jane de Chantal Catholic Church, St. Jane Center, 70420 Maple St., in Abita Springs beginning at 6:30 PM. Mary Kantlehner will be presenting on her organization, Angels' Place, a local organization that provides help for families of young children with terminal illnesses. Come join us, pray together, learn more about the issue, and network!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The cathedral is a treasure in a diocese and in our tradition. It is not simply a “big church,” as some say; some parish churches are larger. What makes a cathedral is the presence of the chair, called a cathedra (Latin for seat) reserved for the bishop.

There are many instances in our country of a local church (diocese) outgrowing a cathedral. In Baltimore and St. Louis, the former cathedrals are historic treasures in the heart of the old city, but new and larger structures now function as the seat of the bishop.

When a bishop dies or retires, it is said that “the seat is vacant,” and when the new bishop is installed, the central ritual is the moment when the decree of the Holy Father is read and the new bishop is escorted to the cathedra. No one but the bishop sits in the cathedra during a ritual, but in Los Angeles the cathedra in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels is accessible, and no one seems to mind when a visitor tries the cathedra out for the bishop’s point of view.

SEVEN WAYS FAMILIES CAN FOSTER VOCATIONS

IDEA 7 : Befriend priest and religious:

Invite a priest, sister or brother to dinner at your home. Personal relationships are key. When kids are comfortable around Fr. John or Sister Margaret, they're far more likely to be comfortable with the idea of a priestly or religious vocation when they grow older.

“The Christian family, which is truly a domestic Church, has always offered favorable conditions for the birth of vocations.”

St. Peter's of Covington will host the St. Joseph the Worker Gospel Choir for an evening of prayer and praise in song, on Friday evening, June 29th at 7 p.m. in St. Peter's Church, 125 E. 19th Avenue, Covington. A reception will follow in St. Mary's Hall. Admission is free, though a free will offering will be accepted. Please see the flyer on the bulletin or call the St. Peter Parish Office for more information at 985-892-2422.

Day of Refreshment for Women

The Catholic Charismatic Renewal of New Orleans (CCRNO) will sponsor its annual Day of Refreshment for Women on Saturday, June 23, from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM in the school gym of Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Kenner. The theme is “We Walk by Faith, Not by Sight.” Patti Mansfield and Kim Lukinovich will teach; Andi Oney and Denise Beyer will lead praise; Janice Charbonnet and Mary Lukinovich will give testimony. Cost is $30 and includes lunch. Women from the region come to enjoy teaching, fellowship, small groups, prayer ministry and music by Mercy Beaucoup. Register online at www.ccrno.org by Wednesday, June 20, 2018, noon, to order lunch. On-site registrations are accepted but no lunch is guaranteed. For more information, call CCRNO at 504-828-1368 or visit www.ccrno.org.

PROMISES

Today’s liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God’s will makes us “family” with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil. Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe—really believe—that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION (EMHC) NEEDED FOR HEALTHCARE MINISTRY

If you are currently an EMHC and are interested in bringing Communion to those Catholics in healthcare facilities (hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living centers or hospice), please contact Deacon Jeff Tully at either jtully@arch-no.org or at 504-227-3606. There is a need in South shore facilities, Northshore facilities, East Bank facilities and West Bank facilities. WE NEED YOU!!! If you are interested but are NOT currently an EMHC, please talk with your Pastor. Once he has approved you in that role, please contact the Office of Worship to inquire about the education sessions they offer.

It is that time of the year again when we must start preparing for the hurricane season that begins June 1st. St. Tammany Parish residents are encouraged to sign up for Alert St. Tammany, the parish emergency communications system. You can access the self registration page at “stpgov.onthealert.com”. The Senior Evacuation Notification System (SENS) is now a part of Alert St. Tammany. Any senior, 60 or older, that would like to register for SENS must access the Alert St. Tammany self registration page to register. May God bless you all and keep you and your family safe this hurricane season.

AMERICAN FLAG

This flag, which we honor and under which we serve, is the emblem of our unity, our power, our thought and purpose as a nation. It has no other character than that which we give it from generation to generation.
