

Fifth Sunday of Lent

April 7, 2019

I consider everything as a loss
because of the supreme good of knowing
Christ Jesus my Lord. — Philippians 3:8

GOD'S ACTIONS NOW

When Jews celebrate the Passover, they always tell the story of the Exodus in present terms, as if they themselves experienced those events: when we were prisoners in Egypt; when God brought us out of slavery and through the waters of the sea. We would do well to follow their example and see the works of Jesus and his sacrifice as being in the present, as happening to us now. We believe that Christ's work, his teachings, and his sacrifice on the cross were not just for his followers in the past, but for all people at all times. When we think of this in our prayers, we become one in faith with that great cloud of witnesses, the saints. We have been striving through Lent to repent of our sins and failings, and to follow Jesus more closely. Today in the story of the woman caught in adultery, we see Jesus forgiving the woman, saving her from a horrible death, and urging her not to sin any more. This is new, and brings out something for which the law had not allowed— forgiveness. Of course one can sin no more if one is dead, caught in one's sins forever. But Jesus introduces the concepts of forgiveness and reconciliation.

THANK YOU for participating in the RICE BOWL.

Fifth Week of Lent Encounter Ona

We encounter Ona in Gaza, where despite lack of economic opportunity, people pursue their dreams by building businesses to better their lives. How do your daily choices impact others throughout the world? How can your choices support the dignity of workers? Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

REMINDER!

The Northshore Food Bank truck will be in front of Church next weekend. Someone will be by the truck to accept the food.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Next weekend, many churches provide palms to be carried in the opening moments of the liturgy, as we gratefully recall Jesus' entry into the holy city of Jerusalem. The children who greeted him on that day used what was both handy and traditional, since palms were carried to inaugurate the joyful harvest feast of Succoth. To this day, faithful Jews are directed to take a beautiful palm branch, green and straight as possible, called a lulav, and bind it with three myrtle branches fifteen inches long, and two longer willow branches. At the end of the temple service, everyone carries the lulav, circling the sanctuary in a dance called the Hoshanot, singing hymns of joy.

In other climates, Jews and Christians alike have had to make accommodations over the years. In Italy, everyone carries olive branches today, often brought from their own garden. In England, forsythia branches are preferred, a relative of the olive, sign of peace. Germans prefer pussy willows, and others look for flowering spring branches. In our part of the world, what do you think would be the best choice to express joy and welcome, and to remind us of the joy of Christ's victory even as we prepare to commemorate his passion?

SUPPER AND SUBSTANCE

The highlight of Super and Substance is the testimony (often quite humorous) given by a married couple on the "trials and tribulations" in their family life, and how they achieved understanding, peace, and a greater love for one another. Get more details on the event from the flyers on the church porch.

"UNPLANNED"

There is an excellent movie, entitled "Unplanned" which is a powerful movie on respect for life. I hope to see the movie. I have been told it is a powerful movie that tells the story of the transformation of Abby Johnson from one of the leading abortion activist to one of the leading pro-life activist. It gives a good glimpse of the inner workings of Planned Parenthood. It is a reminder of our need to pray for a greater respect for all human life and to pray for all those who have been affected by abortion. It is rated R due to the topic and has a few bloody scenes. It is being shown locally.
