Letter from the Pastor

We are beginning CCD with first communion and confirmation. The students were so glad to be back. Keep coming. Thanks to Ruby Aponte and all of our teachers for your commitment. We are employing social distancing.

We are registering for RCIA as well. If any adult needs a sacrament please let us know.

We are signing up for thanksgiving. This Sunday and next Wednesday at the food pantry. Thanks for the donations of food.

Every year, as we are aware, we have the Partners in Charity Appeal which supports the ministries of the Diocese of Worcester. Its out chance to help the Church.

The Diocese has also embarked in a capital campaign called Legacy of Hope. It's an opportunity to help the Diocese and our parishes for years to come.

It will give us a chance to take care of our pressing needs.

In the effort 60% of monies collected go to the Diocese. 40% goes to the parish.

Many parishes have completed this effort last year. We will be involved in the coming year. We have a good committee in place. More information will be forthcoming.

Life is a process. For some it is an adventure for others it is a terminal illness. It depends on attitude and effort.

The Book of Wisdom points out the obvious – charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting. It gives us the chance to go deeper into who we are as people.

People see old pictures and exclaim what happened to you? Life!

St. Paul tells us to go deeper and come up higher. Don't worry about peace and security; don't live in darkness for we are children of the light and children of the day. He urges us not to spend our life sleeping but let us stay alert and sober.

In the Gospel Jesus tells the story of talents. Use your talent and gifts. Don't compare ourselves to others. Don't dig a hole and stay in it. Don't let demanding people throw us off.

Life is gifts. Life is precious. Life is an adventure.

Why spend it fighting and living in anger. Let go and live.

This is the plan of God for us and for our world

In Christ

Monsignor Francis Scollen

Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer offered in faith will restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up, and if he has committed sins, They will be forgiven him.

James 5:14-15
