Letter from the Pastor

Thank you for your help at Thanksgiving. People received a great deal of food. It was heartening.

For Christmas we are doing the same with food and toys. We are not allowed to have a giving tree in the church. We need presents for children from 0-14. We appreciate your thoughtfulness.

Our medical clinic is pausing because of the corona virus surge. All the free clinics in Worcester are doing the same.

It's too bad because we are growing each month but it B1makes sense. We will be back soon.

Tuesday is a holy day – the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. Our mass schedule is somewhat different. It's included in the bulletin.

Calendars are at the doors of the church. We have English calendars, Spanish calendars, and African American calendars. There is no need to be late next year.

The readings challenge us to be messengers. We are called to be patient, to give contributions to the people. We are always to speak tenderly and to reveal the glory of the Lord to all.

Here is a beautiful meditation on Advent from Saint Archbishop Oscar Romero

In Christ

Monsignor Francis Scollen

Christ Loved and Awaited.

Christ is now history. Christ is in the womb of the people. Christ is now bringing about the new heaven and the new earth. Christ became a man of his people and of his time: He lived as a Jew, he worked as a laborer of Nazareth, and since then he continues to become incarnate in everyone.

If many have distanced themselves from the church, it is precisely because the church has somewhat estranged itself from humanity.

But a church that can feel as its own all that is human and wants to incarnate the pain, the hope, the affliction of all who suffer and feel joy, such a church will be Christ loved and awaited, Christ present. And that depends on us.

The Christian knows that Christ has been working in humanity for twenty centuries and that the person that is converted to Christ is the new human being that society needs to organize a world according to God's heart.

Advent should admonish us to discover in each brother or sister that we greet, in each friend whose hand we shake, in each beggar who asks for bread, in each worker who wants to use the right to join a union, in each peasant who looks for work in the coffee groves, the face of Christ. Then it would not be possible to rob them, to cheat them, to deny them their rights.

They are Christ, and whatever is done to them Christ will take as done to himself. This is what Advent is: Christ living among us.

Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer offered in faith will restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up, and if he has committed sins, They will be forgiven him.

James 5:14-15
