Letter from the Pastor

In last weeks bulletin Amie placed a nice tribute to Sr. Mary Ann who leaves this week for Philadelphia. No person has done more for our parish than Sr. Mary Ann Azanza.

Sr. Ann met her at mass at Assumption College, invited her for lunch, and she never left. For twelve years she was the pastoral associate until being chosen as provincial of her community. She still helped in the programs that she stated. ESL, Mentoring, Girls with Dreams.

When we took over St. Andrew's Church, she navigated the sale of the former rectory which has become the Assumption Center. It hosts many pastoral programs and is a residence for dedicated volunteers like Connor Morgan.

She is a friend and a confidant and will be missed.

Thanks to Carlos, Brian and Tony for clearing up the snow so well. Thanks to Clark and Kieting for plowing.

The kids were happy to be back for ccd, we were happy to see them again.

Daily mass started up again with all the precautions involved.

If any adult needs the sacraments, please let us know. There is still time.

Our Legacy of Hope committee will meet this Tuesday at 5:00 p.m.

We moved our meeting from this past week because of the snow.

Lent is coming. Let's get ready.

The readings reflect on Job's life of suffering. Sometimes it seems that suffering rules the day. Covid, racism, violence, isolation, lack of community are present in the lives of too many. We feel as Job that we shall never see happiness again.

But in the Gospel we see Jesus try to help us, to heal us, to drive out unclean spirits.

We all have demons and unclean spirits that need to be driven out. The lack of hope can be a powerful demon that drags us down.

Jesus wants to help us and lift us up. He goes about healing through His Church, through us with the same power and ministry.

St. Paul tells us that we are stewards of this ministry.

To the weak we become weak to win over the weak.

We seek to save at least some.

"All this I do for the sake of His people so that I too may have a share in it."

In Christ
Monsignor Francis Scollen
