Letter from the Pastor

Its been an interesting week. On Monday and Tuesday we welcomed the Adams family to our community and church as they mourned their loved ones.

Edna Mae Williams, Gerald "Jerry" Prince and Woodrow Adams, Sr.

The services, the people here, the sharing, the support was inspiring. Our leaders came: Bishop McManus, Mayor Petty, City Manager Augustus, D.A. Joe Early. Our court officers and police officers were everywhere. That support with the music and prayer and preaching brought solace and hope to all.

It was a momentous effort only brought about by days of hard work by our parishioners. So many people worked tirelessly to accomplish this – thanks!

This Thursday our medical clinic opens again. We had to close because of covid, but we are ready to go.

This Tuesday our Legacy of Hope Committee will meet. We are supporting Partners in Charity and also our diocesan campaign.

Thank you so much for your generosity to our retired priests collection. We are very thankful. Thanks to our retired priests for their dedication.

Our confirmation retreat will be this Saturday – We have over 40 young men and women who seek the fullness of the spirit.

The readings tell us to keep the commandments – the basic principle of human interactions.

This, unfortunately, is when it has to begin.

And moving forward counter intuitively we become more counter – cultural, more unique. We believe that the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

Jesus in the Gospel tried to clean up and clean out the temple – a lifelong pursuit.

The other Sunday the altar server in a panic said there was a rat in the church. It most likely was a mouse – I hope.

I said to the congregation "I thought we drove all the rats out of the Church" People laughed.

But driving out the rats inside, and among us, and in our Church is a life long effort.

As the ten commandments – it is the beginning.

In Christ
Monsignor Francis Scollen

*Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer offered in faith will restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up, and if he has committed sins,
They will be forgiven him.*

James 5:14-15
