Letter from the Pastor

We await the opening of our clinic. Twelve people had called for appointments by the beginning of the week. A good beginning.

This Saturday is our confirmation retreat. We have over 40 candidates. The retreat will be run by Deacon Peter, John Minor and Megan Karpuso from St. Paul's High School. We thank them and Ruby Aponte for organizing this event.

We are in the process of organizing Holy Week. It will be different from other years but preferable to last year when nothing occurred.

Our insert this week talks of the capital campaign of our Diocese entitled Legacy of Hope. Many parishes have participated already.

Its an opportunity to endow our church for the future.

60% of the money collected go to the diocese, 40% stays in the parish. In the weeks ahead all of us will be invited to participate. It's a chance to help us to move into the future together.

The readings remind us that God sends messengers to us because He has compassion for us.

This is our chance to turn it around.

As St. Paul tells us even when we were dead in our transgressions God brought us to life with Christ.

By grace we have been saved.

By grace we have been saved through faith.

It is accomplished through, with and in Jesus who has been lifted up.

Jesus came not to condemn this world but that the world might be saved though Him.

He is the light that has come into the world. But people prefer darkness to light.

We have to face the serpents, the pain, the darkness in our life. We don't run away. We conquer. We face the enemy through the power of the cross of Jesus.

In that and in Him we are saved. We are changed.

Its grace, it's the gift from God and it is ours in abundance.

In Christ

Monsignor Francis Scollen

Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer offered in faith will restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up, and if he has committed sins, They will be forgiven him.

James 5:14-15
