Letter from the Pastor

Several people have told me they received emails from me asking for gift cards. This is the scam of scams. They obviously know people I know but they don't know me. I don't email, I can't turn on a computer and I am not in need of gift cards. The world turns and turns.

We had another excellent young adult gathering this past Sunday night. We had supper and great conversations. The people are planning a hike-walk and a game night. Interested? It's a great way of building community.

All Saints is a feast that occurs on Monday. We will have mass at 5:15 p.m. It is not a Holy Day of obligation.

Tuesday is election day. We will have two precincts to vote in our gym. Let's think through who we are voting for and what their positions are.

Activities have resumed here. If people want to have a program here they have to consult Amie in the office. Scheduling is very tight and we must be cognizant of all people.

The reading seek to synthesize our faith. Moses tells the people to keep the commandments. It will make a difference.

They are all about focusing our life in God that leads to a land flowing with milk and honey. Jesus amplifies this teaching. He sums up all the commandments in the love of God and love of neighbor.

Its simple and essential and the answer to the meaning of life. The difficulty is in the practice of it.

Hebrews continues with it's commentary of the priesthood. Jesus is the high priest—Holy, innocent, undefiled, separate from sinners, higher than the heavens.

The rest of us offers prayer for our sins and the sins of the people.

Men who are appointed are subject to weakness.

We seek Jesus, along with everyone else, to be made perfect forever.

One of my professors commented on the inadequacies of priests said "I don't know what we'd do if it weren't for death"

Now there's a surrealistic thought.

Better days are ahead.

In Christ,
Monsignor Francis Scollen
